

PTA

The
Torrance Council Way
Mrs. Ralph Gring

ARNOLD
At the October meeting, PTA president, Mrs. Don Untereiner announced the Parent-Teacher Institute six-week course to be held each Tuesday morning from 9 to 11 a.m., in the cafeteria, beginning Oct. 18. This course will be led by Torrance Council PTA chairman, Mrs. Hiro Muranaka and is open to all units of the Torrance Council.

Mrs. A. de Synadinos and Mrs. Don Wise will assist library chairman, Mrs. Carl Campbell, with plans for a new school library. Mrs. Campbell has attended workshops and is beginning her ground work on this worthwhile project to teach students library procedures and book responsibilities at an early age.

Arnold PTA donated an American Flag to Cub Scout Pack 1064 of Torrance, whom they sponsor.

Mrs. Joseph Riggiano will hold paper drives in November, January, March, May and July.

EVELYN CARR
The meeting of Evelyn Carr PTA will be held Tuesday, Oct. 25, at 7:30 p.m. and will feature a child psychologist, Dr. Fitzhugh J. Dodson. Dr. Dodson will speak on "A Key to Raising Children." A question and answer period will follow.

Carr carnival will be held Friday, Oct. 28, from 6 to 9 p.m. There will be food, fun and games for all.

For those who have not yet purchased a copy of "Carr Cooks Again," there are still a few left. These cookbooks have been a very successful way and means project.

HOWARD WOOD
Everyone in the Howard Wood PTA district and the surrounding area is invited to come prepared for fun, food and frolics at the school, when the annual carnival is held on Oct. 29 from 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. There will be booths galore. Mrs. Bill Lorenz is chairman of the event.

Mrs. Thomas Irvine, president, introduced two new board members at a recent board meeting. They are Mrs. Robert Yoakum, corresponding secretary; and James Hinds, treasurer.

Andrew Kovach, principal, introduced M. S. Littleford, assistant principal, to board members.

Mrs. William Johns, library chairman, announced the school library is open now. Anyone wishing to donate books may contact Mrs. Johns or the Howard Wood office.

PHILIP MAGRUDER
The aim of the Philip Magruder PTA during its recent membership drive was to enroll members who are definitely interested in the PTA of their children's school. The invitation to join was personal and friendly and stressed the value of parent-teacher membership to parents and to teachers. Mrs. B. Bengston, assisted by Mrs. R. Flores, who sent out the friendly invitations, announce that this is going to be followed up by a warm welcome at meetings.

MEADOW PARK
Meadow Park PTA will hold its annual Halloween Carnival, at the school on Saturday, Oct. 29, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mrs. John Howenstine and Mrs. John Bennett as co-chairmen announce many surprises at this year's carnival. Tacos, hot dogs, cakes, pies, cookies, and the Country Store will be in the cafeteria, and many games will be set up to entertain. Carnival proceeds will help finance school parties, and purchase books for the Meadow Park library.

VICTOR
The annual Halloween Carnival sponsored by the Victor PTA will be held Saturday, Oct. 29, from 10:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. on the school ground which is located at 4820 W. Spencer St. Food, games, prizes, a Spook House and a magic show are the featured events.

SEASIDE
On Saturday, Oct. 29, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., the Seaside PTA will have its carnival "Fall Fun Festival." Mrs. Walter Sutherland, ways and means chairman, announced the following events which will take place during the scheduled hours of the carnival: at 1 p.m., a costume parade will be held in the playground with the Seaside Band playing for the participants in the parade. Prizes will be awarded in the following categories: the most original, the funniest, and the prettiest costume.

Drawings for door prizes will be held at 1:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. A few of the highlights of the carnival will be a zoo room, in which animals belonging to Seaside students will be on display. From 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. a dance will be held in the cafeteria with a live band for the older children. Game booths and food will also be featured.

CARL STEELE
One of the main features of the Carl Steele PTA carnival to be held Oct. 28, will be a "Dragon-Head" spook house. This booth was compiled by fathers with Mr. Richard Deaton, the creator. Other features of the carnival to be held from 4 to 8 p.m. will be a booth conducted by the 8th grade classes, the proceeds to go for their graduation party and dance. Carl Steele PTA has a "Carnival Curfew." Each child registers at the carnival, one hour after it is over "six" names are drawn and the child is called at home. If he is home he wins a prize.

MADISON
PTA members and children of Madison are planning their carnival to be held Oct. 22, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. "Halloween A-Go-Go" is the carnival theme, with games and food featured.

During the annual membership drive Madison PTA sponsored a parade, with mothers dressed in costumes and the children's bicycles decorated. Mrs. Jimmie Boykin, legislation chairman, announced several PTA members plan to walk from house to house to urge people to get out and vote on the school bond issue.

Beginning at 7:30 p.m., the event is being conducted in cooperation with the gas company through its Southwest Division home economist, Vicki Pellerito.

Mrs. Pellerito will present the film, which covers the latest models of gas barbecuing appliances, outdoor heaters and lights. Delectable dishes, best prepared on a barbecue, will be accepted. A question and answer period follows the film, according to Mrs. David Wade, group president. Refreshments will be served.

Women's club members, their guests and interested parties will receive menus covering the dishes shown in the film. Tickets for the event may be purchased by calling Mrs. William Burchfield.

The Torrance Junior Women's Club plays an active role in Southwest area endeavors including project "Head Start" Harbor Hospital volunteer work and Torrance Scout Center assistance.

GHOSTS, GOBLINS AND WITCHES
Children in costumes push the ticket sales for the Anza PTA Carnival as they surround Mrs. F. L. Notch, ticket chairman. The children are, from left, Heidi Fenton, Jody Lowe, Jeff Notch and Sheila Morris. The "Halloween Hullabaloo" will be held Saturday, Oct. 29 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the school grounds. There will be game and refreshment booths as well as a tearoom and general store. (Press-Herald Photo)

YOU HAVE TO HAVE A TICKET
The balloon man gets a rush from a group of Madrona school children, from left, Bonnie Ouwendijk, Cathy Pour and David Paour, who are told by Mrs. Norman Pierce, ways and means chairman, that they have to have a ticket for the school Carnival before they get a balloon. The annual carnival, with the theme "Madrona Where the Action Is," will be held Saturday, Oct. 29 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the school grounds. Games, prizes, refreshments are the feature for the day. (Press-Herald Photo)

Juniors To See Film On Cooking

"Cooking Al Fresco," a colorful film illustrating the advantages of year-around outdoor cooking, is the feature of a special meeting and social, Oct. 19, at the Torrance Junior Women's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave., Torrance.

Beginning at 7:30 p.m., the event is being conducted in cooperation with the gas company through its Southwest Division home economist, Vicki Pellerito.

Mrs. Pellerito will present the film, which covers the latest models of gas barbecuing appliances, outdoor heaters and lights. Delectable dishes, best prepared on a barbecue, will be accepted. A question and answer period follows the film, according to Mrs. David Wade, group president. Refreshments will be served.

Women's club members, their guests and interested parties will receive menus covering the dishes shown in the film. Tickets for the event may be purchased by calling Mrs. William Burchfield.

The Torrance Junior Women's Club plays an active role in Southwest area endeavors including project "Head Start" Harbor Hospital volunteer work and Torrance Scout Center assistance.

Social Dance Class Opens At YWCA

Scheduled for adults who would like to be able to enjoy all the holiday dances and be at ease on the dance floor, a class in Social Dancing will be offered by the Torrance YWCA on Wednesday evenings from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

Miss Judi Reeves, the instructor, a former instructor for a South Bay Arthur Murray Studio, will include all the basic dance steps, such as the Fox Trot, Cha Cha, Waltz, but special emphasis will be given to the currently popular dances including the Bossa Nova, Jerk, Frug, etc.

The class will include an hour of instruction and one hour of supervised practice in order that each participant can have the advantage of individual help. The class will meet for eight weeks each Wednesday evening for two hours and an additional eight weeks of advanced work will be offered following this beginning class. The class is for couples, however single registrations are available. The Torrance YWCA may be called for advance registration or information.

Joins Secretaries
Mrs. Howard S. Murphy, 5606 Via Del Collado, Torrance, has joined the Los Angeles Chapter of Executives Secretaries, Inc., as active representative for Ducommun, Incorporated.

Future Activities On the Roster

MARINA DISTRICT FASHION EVENT

Final plans are being made for the Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs annual fund raising event, according to the general chairman, Mrs. Janet Dee.

"Golden Autumn" fashion show and luncheon will be held at the Airport Marina Hotel, 8601 Lincoln Blvd., Playa Del Rey, Friday, Oct. 28 at 12 noon.

Mrs. H. Ted Olson, president of the Torrance Club, will serve as a hostess at the event.

PRECEPTOR ALPHA BETA CHAPTER

Preceptor Alpha Beta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will meet Monday evening, Oct. 24 at 8 at the home of Mrs. Dominick Nardelli, 18023 Casimir, Gardena.

Miss Martha Oehlerting, ways and means chairman, will distribute cans of candy and Christmas candles to be sold to finance a service project.

Billie Olson, social chairman will discuss the "Hard Times" party to be held Oct. 29 at the home of Mrs. Robert Marble, Mrs. Louis

Below, program chairman, will present "Movies, Drama and Comedy."

GAMMA PHI BETA FOUNDERS DAY

Southern California Intercity Council of Gamma Phi Beta, which includes 12 alumni chapters and three active chapters at USC, UCLA and Long Beach, will hold its Founders Day luncheon celebrating the sorority's 92nd anniversary on Saturday, Oct. 29. The 12 noon affair will be held at the Ports o'Call restaurant.

RHO XI TO NOTE BIRTHDAY

Rho Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will celebrate its eleventh anniversary at the next regular meeting, on Wednesday, Oct. 26, at the home of Mrs. Gordon Hartley, 2311 West 229th Pl., Torrance. A cultural program entitled "Environment, Health, Work and Play" will be presented by Mrs. James Elliott.

Immediately following the business meeting and cultural program, members will enjoy a social including an exchange of gifts.

Christmas Party by Moose Unit

"Christmas in October" was the theme for the meeting of the Torrance Chapter Women of the Moose at which the annual collection of donations is made for the children at Mooseheart, and for Moosehaven, a place for retired Moose members.

The hall was decorated in the Christmas motif including a decorated Christmas tree.

Women's Society of Christian Service of the WALTERIA Community Church will participate this week in one of the most important annual observances of Methodist women throughout the United States.

More than 1,800,000 women in 36,000 societies and guilds in all 50 states will join in the "Call to Prayer and Self Denial," first observed by Methodist women in 1887.

The Call is sponsored by Woman's Division of the Methodist Board of Missions. The division, one of four major units of the Board of Missions, is the national body under which all local societies and guilds function.

The theme of this year's Call is "These My Brethren." The service will include prayer, meditation, silent meal and a special offering will be given for the Deaconess Pension Fund and Community Centers around the world.

The Quiet Day Service will be held in sanctuary of the WALTERIA Church on Wednesday Oct. 26 from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. under the leadership of the Spiritual Life Committee. Women attending are asked to bring their Bibles and a sack lunch. Child care will be provided.

SPRINGING INTO ACTION
Guinnon Johnston, a teacher at Evelyn Carr school, dressed as a clown, jumps a rope held by Rod Broley and Gary La Rock, to begin festivities at the Carr PTA Carnival A Go Go set for Friday, Oct. 28 from 6 to 9 p.m. on the school grounds. There will be games, prizes and refreshments. Other features are a Pocket Lady, Balloon Man, and a 7th and 8th grade dance. (Press-Herald Photo)

COUNTDOWN TIME
Ken Lorenz, 4, does the count down for the blast-off of Mrs. William L. Myers, hospitality chairman, to begin the Halloween Carnival festivities at the Howard Wood School, Carnival hours on Saturday, Oct. 29 are from 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. There will be booths galore and the public is invited to attend. (Press-Herald Photo)

James Johnston, secretary of the Loyal Order of Moose 765, Torrance, gave an interesting talk on Mooseheart and Moosehaven.

Mrs. Robert Doeppling was chairman for the evening. On her committee were Mmes. Bernard Finke, Minnie Gustafsson and June Wilson.

New members enrolled were Mrs. Charles Forte sponsored by Mrs. Jake Reinhardt; Mrs. Frank Fuller sponsored by Mrs. Bernard Finke; Mmes. Henry Wisniewski and John Foley sponsored by Marion Sparks; and Mrs. William Roberts sponsored by Mrs. Robert Doeppling.

Refreshments were served following the meeting. Mrs. Jake Reinhardt, library chairman, will preside at the next chapter meeting Nov. 2.

THE OLD WEST LIVES AGAIN
Crenshaw PTA has gone western for its annual school carnival to be held Friday evening, Oct. 28 from 5 to 9:30 p.m. on the school grounds. Two PTA cowgirls practicing their roping are, from left, Mmes. Richard Gillham and Edward Wilson, with two five year olds, Lynn Angel and Tommy Frosheliser looking on. Many booths will be provided for all kinds of games, popcorn, candy apples, tacos and hot dogs will be on sale. From 5 to 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria, a barbecue beef and beans dinner will be served. (Press-Herald Photo)

C. E. Youngkens Feted on 47th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Youngkens, 1313 1/2 Portola Ave., Torrance, who celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary on Oct. 15, were honored at a surprise anniversary party on Friday evening, Oct. 14, at the Palms Restaurant.

The party was given by the couple's two sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Ben E. Youngkens, Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Youngkens and Miss Gwen Youngkens, all of Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Youngkens have been residents of Torrance since 1922.

PTA

HALLDALE

Halldale Avenue PTA is presenting "Eversole the Magician" for the children's entertainment on Saturday, Oct. 29. Performances will be held in the school auditorium at 10 and 11:15 a.m.

Mr. Eversole will be assisted by his wife, Jeanne and their three children, Craig, Kathleen and Tanya. Also included in the show will be Hippity the Hare, Petunia the Wandering Skunk, Gus the Guinea Pig, and Dotty the Darling Dove.

Children in the audience will take part in the mysteries and fun. Parents and pre-schoolers are welcome and admission will be at a nominal fee. There will also be a fish pond and balloons sold after each performance.